“ So sorry for your loss during these difficult times. Not a day goes by that I don't think of Chris. He was my manager for 7 years. I remember when he took over for David back in 2005 I was a little nervous because David did such a great job ie left me alone to do my thing. Once Chris took over as manager I would sometimes have a run of sales and wonder if I even had a manager because he wouldn't call which I liked of course. Pretty awesome and I think he sensed that. But if I had a run of maybe a couple weeks of no sales he was right there calling me. That's what managers do right? He was different. I would look forward to his calls because he was a motivator and had wisdom and put you back on track using his see the people speech etc. Such a great guy you wanted to please him and show him you can sell. He made me a competitor. In 2011 his top three agents lead the company and I was one of those three. (There's a picture somewhere of him and us three agents holding a broom representing a "clean sweep").No coincidence there. I had a connection with him. A beautiful man that will be missed.

Your all in my prayers
