“ My Sweet Daddy.....God made you especially to be our Daddy. Your love was always unconditional and the words, "I Love You", were always on your lips. I will miss our talks so much. You were always so encouraging and pointing me towards my Bible. Your faith has made me want to a better Christian. I can only hope that I will ever learn The Word like you knew it. You are with our Heavenly Father and no longer in pain and I know that your prayer for quite some time was The Lord to take you in the Rapture or just take you home. I am so grateful that we have an awesome and merciful God.
I laid in your bed last night until 5 am praying for the peace of mind and comfort that you went peacefully. I selfishly needed that validation. After praying and lying quietly, I was startled by the loud noise of your plastic water bottle making a "pop" noise. It's the simple things that God uses to comfort our hearts. I don't believe in coincidence, so I know that you were granted a peaceful exit from this broken world that you spent your last days, constantly praying for. My heart is broken but all the while rejoicing because you are finally Home and that I will see you sooner than later. Shine your Light Bright and I will meet you at The Pearly Gates. Rest In Peace and Comfort with Mama until we are all together again. I love you Sweet Daddy.....Sis

“ My friend Ed gave me a job years back. Him and his brother Wayne would talk to me about how good Jesus was and how He could change my life to the better, but I was still young and dumb. But I never forgot the words they said to me. There time sharing with me finally paid off. When I got right with God all I could think about was what Ed and Wayne shared with me. R.I.P Ed and tell Jesus I said hello!

“ So sadden that you are gone but rejoicing that you are home. I know you have a glorified body & are with your Savior. I hurt for your children and grand-children. You were one of the favorites! I have sweet memories of seeing you when I would go see Granny. You always had a cheerful disposition & a hug for me. You will be missed but it is not good bye just a see you later! Much love - Rebecca

Me: "Hey Ed, I need a piece of crown molding for that space."

Ed looked to the corner of the 12 ft ceiling and without a word or a measurement, cut a piece that fit exactly from about 15 3/16th inches to the corner and fit the angle in the corner perfectly.

He did amazing things with a skill saw.

Most importantly, I will remember Ed for his love of God and his faith in Jesus Christ our King of kings and Lord of lords!
