“ Gosh, I am soooo saddened about my friend and neighbor Joey. I will never forget you Joey. He was such a wonderful person. He had a loving and caring heart. The many times you rode to band practice and to the football games with us are all of happy and fun memories. I remember our last conversation, we reminiscence about the good old days of being in the band and our small community around the Richards Chapel Church area before all the growth. I know your mom (Mrs. Carol), your dad (Mr. Joe) and your sister (Patty) welcomed you into their heavenly arms. Joey, thanks for being my friend and a good neighbor. Dee, thanks for loving my friend Joey and being a GREAT wife to him. No doubt, Joey was a good father. Joey, I will miss you and will never forget you. I'll see you again when I get to heaven. Keep a light on for me Joey!
