And my enduring gratitude to Boogie for making sure I'll never again have an umbrella block my view in Sanford Stadium. Thank you Boogie! I'll miss your smiles and conversations.

“ Suzette and Natalie every time I was ever in your Dad/Granddad's presence he was so kind. I remember pulling up to the house in Covington to see him cutting grass on his riding mower. He would always smile and wave, but he seemed so determined to keep that grass perfect. I know you guys will miss him, but I also know he will live on in your thoughts, memories, and lives. Love you two and am keeping you in my prayers!!
