“ Uncle Richard always had a smile for you; I can't think of a single time that I saw him angry, though I'm sure he must have been from time to time. He loved his family and always made us kids feel loved with his hugs, but more than that he always loved God and you just knew he was at peace with his faith. What more could you ask for in life than to be remembered as a true and faithful servant and to be missed by those whose lives you have touched; he WILL be remembered and missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with every family member and friend who both grieve and rejoice with us over his passing.
