its hard to believe that we just talked to each other last week and then to find out that you are now in heaven is bitter sweet. we became friends on facebook by chance and remained friends by choice. i know we didn't see each other often, but i knew that we would always be friends. you definitely earned your wings and i know you are now pain free and that one day we will meet again. i pray for god to give daniel the strength and comfort to get through this difficult time. and i know that tia is missing you like crazy. heaven is so lucky to now have you and i look forward to the day that i see that beautiful face and that contagious smile again. bye for now (faye)
